

Reading challenge for KS3: Get Out of Your House and Into Your Mind!

Year 7,8,9

Choose a book from the suggested list, (or a suitable reading book you already have at home). Please see the following slides for links.

Each week a series of five generic questions will be sent out for you to answer on your chosen book, this way you can create a reading log- you could even design a display to be put in the library on our return !

Sample questions for the first week:

Why did you choose this particular book?

Were you influenced in the blurb or by the cover?

Who is your favourite character so far?

Teachers can get involved too!

“The early summer sky was the color of cat vomit.” –Uglies by
Scott Westerfeld

Alice was beginning to get very tired of sitting by her sister on the bank and of having nothing to do: once or twice she had peeped into the book her sister was reading, but it had no pictures or conversations in it, "and what is the use of a book," thought Alice, "without pictures or conversations?"

If you really want to hear about it, the first thing you'll probably want to know is where I was born, and what my lousy childhood was like, and how my parents were occupied and all before they had me, and all that David Copperfield kind of crap, but I don't feel like going into it, if you want to know the truth.

“It has been sixty-four years since the president and the Consortium identified love as a disease, and forty-three since the scientists perfected a cure.” –Delirium by Lauren Oliver

“The best day of my life happened when I was five and almost died at Disney World. I'm sixteen now, so you can imagine that's left me with quite a few days of major suckage.” –Going Bovine by Libba Bray
